Non Violence and MAHABHARATA

- 2nd October INTERNATIONAL NON VOILENCE DAY
- International Day of Non-Violence is observed on 2 October, the birthday of Mahatma Gandhi,
- General Assembly resolution A/RES/61/271 of 15 June 2007, which established the commemoration, the International Day is an occasion to "disseminate the message of non-violence,

Violence and non violence

- What is the concept of violence?

The World Health Organisation (WHO) defines violence as "intentional use of physical force or power, threatened or actual, against oneself, another person, or against a group or community, that either results in or has a high likelihood of resulting in injury, death, psychological harm, maldevelopment or deprivation".

What are the 4 main types of violence?

- physical violence.
 - verbal violence (including hate speech)
 - psychological violence.
 - sexual violence.
- NO INJURY NO HARM (MENTAL & PHYSICAL)

NON VIOLENCE IN JANISM

- India is the Hearth of Janism
- The principle of nonviolence includes doing no harm to humans, plants, animals, and nature. For that reason, Jains are strict vegetarians—so strict, in fact, that eating root vegetables is not allowed because removing the root would kill the plants.
- The foundational premise in Jainism is ahimsa, which is translated as “non-violence”. Jains avoid causing harm, whether intentional or unintentional, to any living being through their speech, actions or thoughts, choosing instead to practise compassion towards all life

NON VIOLENCE IN BUDHISM

- Gandhi's views on ahimsā may be of some aid in shedding light on the teachings of the Buddha
- Noble Eightfold Path.
- Ahimsa is a practice that intentionally stops any activities that can cause harm to living beings and also to the natural world.

Mahabharata: 5th Vedas 18th Chapter : Shanti Parva

अहिंसा परमो धर्मः तथाहिंसा परो दमः।
अहिंसा परमं दानम् अहिंसा परमस तपः।
अहिंसा परमो यज्ञः तथाहिंसा परं बलम्।
अहिंसा परमं मित्रम् अहिंसा परमं सुखम्।
अहिंसा परमं सत्यम् अहिंसा परमं श्रुतम्॥

Ahimsa* is the highest dharma, Ahimsa is the highest self-control,
Ahimsa is the greatest gift, Ahimsa is the best practice,
Ahimsa is the highest sacrifice, Ahimsa is the finest strength,
Ahimsa is the greatest friend, Ahimsa is the greatest happiness,
Ahimsa is the highest truth, and Ahimsa is the greatest teaching.

PILLARS OF NON VIOLENCE

- Respect,
- Understanding,
- Acceptance,
- Appreciation,
- Compassion.

Any one imbibing these five basic pillars can practice nonviolence in their daily lives without much difficulty

It's a training class of Gandhian nonviolence, learning why (and to some degree, how) to peacefully face and defuse hatred and violence with courage.

Aim of the dissemination lecture was the real training of philosophical nonviolence .

Student learnt a lot about the Martin Luther King, Mahatma Gandhi and about the end chapter of Mahabharata (related to non violence)

THEME: Gender Study (Transgender and Mahabharata)

INTRODUCTION: Indian constitution has proclaimed for equality to human beings irrespective of other differences. Moreover, during 1948, Human Right Commission has captured the world attention (in Article 1) and proclaimed that human right is the inherent right of all human being. The Indian constitution secured the protection and right of Indian transgender people. Since the early Vedic era, Upanishads, Epic literature (Mahabharata), and post-Mahabharata literature depicted few characters of third-gender identity with social dignity

OBJECTIVE:

Aim to study the transgender character of Mahabharata.

METHODOLOGY:

The project based on literature and it's the Bengali translation of Mahabharata of Rajsekher Basu.

PERIOD: APRIL 1 to 9TH 2021

DISCUSSION:

In Mahabharata, two warrior characters depict in transgender or third-gender; one is trans-male and the other is the trans-female. Both the characters belong to the royal and aristocrats families. The trans-feminine character of Brihanala found in the fourth chapter (Virata-Parva, the exile period of Pandava) of Mahabharata. The Brihanala is the biological male (primordial male) character and he is the most powerful warrior of Kuruskhetra and he is the 3rd Pandava Arjuna. He cross-dressed as women and spent one year in womanhood. A lot of story and allegories lies behind that fact. The second character is Shikhandi who is trans-masculine (Chapter sixth, Udayoga Parva) and primordially Shikhandi is girls (named Shikhandini).

The climax point of Kuruskhetra war is the entry of Shikhandi in the battlefield and that is in between nine-night and tenth day of the war, it is the perfect middle of the war. The Dropdie's twin's brother Dhristadhyumana proposed the name of Shikhandi to lower down the bow of Bhisma (in the tenth day of the war). Dhristadhyumna addressed Shikhandi as his elder brother (masculine gender) and he gave clear statement that, Shikhandi is biologically girl and Shikhandi grownup as a male and despite of primordial girl and Shikhandi acquired manhood. Krishna argued towards Bhiswa that, in Bhiswa's view Shikhandi is a woman because Shikhandi is the primordial female and his heart is Amba's heart (female), but according to Krishna during the war, Shikhandi is the male being (Shikhandini achieved manhood for expressing self). The Shikhandi or the Shikhandini embodied all queers people from gays to lesbian to Hijras to transgender to hermaphrodite to bisexual or the subtle of third-gender. Duryodhana asked to Bhisma that how Shikhandini (feminine gender), having before been born as female gender, afterward became a man, and foremost of warriors.

RESULT:

The gender conventionally displays by the substantial binary system and it's a dimorphic model of sex. A few people are biological not fitted with the binary gender system and sometimes, it provokes a messy identity for the human being and it includes both trans-feminine and trans-masculine. The gender determination by the biological indicators with the binary system has a long history. Therefore; the unique challenge faces by the non-binary individual and they encounter a problem of self-identity with binary gender system. The preamble of the Indian Constitution proclaims equal rights (Article 14) for all citizens irrespective of gender.

CONCLUSION:

The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act, 2019 recognizes the right to self-perceived gender identity, and new identification documents confirming the change of gender can be issued by government agencies once a certificate is provided by a relevant medical official.

OUR STUDENTS GROUP

Students Expression:

We express deep gratitude to Teacher In Charge, Dr. Sujay Sain, Mr. Prasanta Kumbhakar, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali, for the arrangement of such informative programme.

OUTCOMES:

The fundamental human values which are expected in all human beings, irrespective of class, caste, gender or religion are truth, honesty, loyalty, love, peace which are at the core of being human, and which mirror the fundamental goodness of human beings. Integrating human values into the curriculum involves emphasizing principles such as empathy, integrity, respect, and compassion to create a learning environment that nurtures not only intellectual growth but also ethical perspective. Student become aware about TANGENDER rules 2018 , 2019 and get an idea about LGBTQ.

Report on Plantation Day :

The tree plantation programme is an interesting initiative to save the environment and to spread awareness on the importance of ecology. A tree plantation programme was organised by the students and teachers of Chhatra Chandidar Mahavidyalaya on _____ a teacher of the department of _____ was the co-ordinator of the programme. Under his guidance and supervision, the students of the college planted sapling of many indigenous tree species. Selected tree species like Eucalyptus, mango, guava, lemon, rose, hibiscus etc. having ecological significance and aesthetic beauty were planted. All the teachers present in the programme planted saplings with great enthusiasm as it was a great opportunity to contribute to the greenery of the environment.
